SERVICES

Complete diagnostic and therapeutic services are provided for children and adults with speech, hearing, and language problems. These include but are not limited to:

- Hearing screenings
- Hearing testing and counseling
- Hearing aid evaluation and counseling
- Hearing aid sales, orientation, and repair
- Speechreading and auditory training for adults with hearing loss
- Speech and hearing conservation
- Speech and language therapy and auditory training for children with hearing loss
- Individual and family counseling

Speech and language testing for
- Sound production problems
- Voice disorders
- Fluency disorders
- Language delays and disorders
- Swallowing and other oropharyngeal disorders
- Speech and language therapy for the above disorders

All clinical contacts will be guided by the highest ethical, professional, and legal standards. The client should come first in all interactions.