OTHER EQUIPMENT

Clinical equipment of various kinds is stored in appropriate areas of the Clinic and is maintained according to manufacturer instructions. Certain items may be checked out overnight through the Office Assistant. The equipment should be returned to its appropriate place when the session in which it is used is completed.

All equipment is maintained by the Speech-Language Pathology staff and according to the manufacturer’s specifications.