Each client chart contains a Service Log Sheet. The student clinician, along with the clinical educator in charge of the case, is responsible for entering the date and amount of time spent in each diagnostic and therapy session. The Service Log Sheet must coincide with the dates listed on the Progress Note sheet.