TREATMENT ROOMS

Each treatment room is furnished in a specific manner. If furniture must be removed or substituted for a session, the clinician must return it to its proper place. The last clinicians to leave the Clinic at the end of the day are responsible for locking up.